FOR FOOD

A comic panel with a light purple background. On the left, a girl with brown skin and large black eyes wears a green hijab and a green long-sleeved shirt. She is looking upwards and to the right with a thoughtful expression, her right hand near her chin. On the right, a girl with pale skin and large black eyes has blonde hair in pigtails and wears a light blue long-sleeved shirt. She is holding a black smartphone in her right hand and looking at it with a surprised or excited expression, her mouth open. Two speech bubbles are present: one from the girl in the hijab pointing to the left, and another from the blonde girl pointing to the right.
